Description

Established and small nonprofit is looking to bring on a digital media/marketing intern to support our social media and marketing efforts. The internship will include one day a week in the office (10:30am – 2:30 pm), and may also include occasional support at off-site events outside of office hours.

Responsibilities

- Contribute to the overall mission-driven messaging of the organization, as directed by staff and board.
- Create and curate content (written and visual) for Suited for Success and Dress for Success Miami social media profiles (Facebook, Instagram and Twitter).
- Help manage the organization's email marketing efforts (Mailchimp)
- Write blog posts and update the Suited for Success and Dress for Success Miami websites.

Requirements

- Strong writing and communication skills. Experience with mission-driven campaigns a plus.
- Good eye for compelling visuals and basic photography/graphics skills (such as mobile photo apps)
- Social media management experience (Facebook, Instagram, Twitter).
- Experience with email marketing systems (Mailchimp) and Wordpress CMS a plus.

About Suited for Success / Dress for Success Miami

Founded in 1994, Suited for Success (SFS) was started to help welfare recipients enter the workforce by providing them with appropriate clothing for interviews and jobs. The organization expanded to serve youth (since 1998) and men (since 1999). Experience quickly showed that business clothing is essential, but not sufficient to get and keep a job, so SFS created tailored workshops on job interview readiness, professional image, communication skills, and business etiquette. Since 1999, Suited for Success has served more than 50,000 individuals with job training and clothing to support their job search needs and help them secure employment. Its women's program, Dress for Success Miami, is an affiliate of Dress for Success, which has more than 140 locations in 20 countries. Learn more at <http://www.suitedforsuccess.org/>.
